To Present 'Claudia'

...a very funny play — not a wisecrack play, but with laughter stemming from the deep roots of living. The Chicago Journal of Commerce about "Claudia," this fall production by Grayling High School's Drama Club, will be presented the nights November 10 and 11 at 8:00 in the High School Auditorium.

ium in Grayling. This is the Drama Club's second time to use the effect of a theater in the round, the first being last spring's One-Act Festival. The title role is filled by Gail Hunter. She is known best for her excellent performance as Helen Keller in "The Miracle Worker," last winter. Larry Beery has the male lead of David Claudia's husband, Larry has played such characters as the Highwayman in "Tom Jones," among others. Vicki Scher portrays Claudia's mother, Mrs. Brown. Other members of the cast are Mary Gardiner, Sandy Millikin, Dorothy Filley, Fenn Welch, and Doug Wilson.

"Claudia" is the warm and touching story of a young woman not yet ready to handle all the situations of life. She is physically mature, but mentally she is still a child. She has an attachment to her mother that might put her marriage in danger, if not for David's understanding of the problem.

The play covers a 24-hour period in Claudia's life. During this time she first attempts to make David jealous by flirting with a young British author. Claudia next learns she is going to have a baby. Not long after this, she discovers her mother has but a very short time to live.

In the closing scene we realize that a change has occurred in Claudia. She has learned to "hold close with open hands."

Viking Choirs In Concert November 17

The Grayling High School Junior and Senior High Choirs will open their concert season one month early this year, with their first production being a Fall Concert which will be presented on Friday evening, November 17, in the high school gym.

The concert will be opened by the Senior High Concert Choir presenting an example of a variety of types of music, ranging from Bach to the American Broadway stage. Two numbers, "Gossip, Gossip" and "Echoing Beguine" will feature Latin American rhythms.

For their portion of the Fall Concert, the Junior High Choir will present a "Gaslight Serenade" which will feature a lot of the "old" songs that are always so popular. Several of their numbers are from the old type Broadway operettas such as the ones written by Herbert and Romberg.

Even though everyone will be busy engaged in making preparations for the annual quest for the stag on Saturday morning, make plans now for one hour of very relaxing and enjoyable music during the evening hours. Bring your hunters with you. Come as you are — you will certainly be glad you did. Friday evening, November 17, at the High School Gym. Doors open at 7:30 and the concert starts promptly at 8:00.

Cederberg's Aide In Grayling November 14th
The monthly visit of Congressman E. A. Cederberg's district staff man to Crawford County will occur Tuesday, November 14th, when he will be at the courthouse in Grayling between 2:00 and 3:00 p.m.

Area residents having views they would like to have referred to the Congressman, or specific problems involving government agencies they would like to have him handle, are urged to discuss them with Mr. Nakkula.

Woman's Club
The Grayling Woman's Club met Monday evening and Mrs. Joseph Stripe introduced District Supervisor of Youth for Understanding, Mrs. Charles Doe of Traverse City. Since the club helps sponsor the Grayling Exchange Student Program members were interested to hear details about the students, how and why they are chosen and what is expected of them as youth ambassadors. Following Mrs. Doe was Carla J. Mosher, recent a m b a s a d o r to Denmark. She spoke largely of the people of Denmark and their daily lives. Members were amused by her description of a typical picnic table, which involved card table, tablecloth, china and silver, a far cry from our paper plates and finger food.

A lengthy business meeting was presided over by President Sal Tretunier. Mrs. Glen Fox reported on the very successful tea held at the Ausagra Acres open house on Sunday. Thanks to the generosity of guests a substantial sum has been turned over to Lora Gould as the nucleus of a fund to purchase a movie projector for the community room.

Mrs. E. R. Burns reported on the work done at the clubhouse entrance. It has been graded, and it is hoped the steps will be put in before December 7, the date of the annual Golden Age party.

At the request of Mrs. Jack Wainwright it was voted unanimously to allow Mercy Hospital Auxiliary to use the clubhouse for a fund raising card party in January.

Coffee and coffeecake were served by hostesses Mrs. Joseph Hull and Mrs. Ernest Norenberg.

ANNUAL RED COAT ROUNDUP ALL SET FOR NOV. 17-18-19

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce has announced the dates for the Annual Red Coat Roundup, which will be November 17, 18th, and 19th.

The community "Deer Pole" will be up, with many prizes offered to visiting hunters and huntresses, such as the lucky hunters bringing in the first ten deer, first buck, biggest deer, first huntress with a deer, and youngest hunter bringing in a deer. Various community organizations have scheduled special events for the expected throngs of deer hunters coming into the Grayling region for the deer season opening.

The Chamber mobile office will be in a downtown location, offering accommodations help, hunter registration, and information regarding best hunting areas. Local Conservation officers have stated the deer herd in Crawford County is better than last year.

The Department of Military Affairs wishes to remind deer hunters that the entire north range of the military reservation of approximately 100,000 acres is open to all deer hunters, and that the entire area is accessible with over 2,000 miles of trails traversing the area.

Record 60 Counties Share State Snow Removal Funds

LANSING — A record 60 Michigan counties — an all-time high — will receive State Snow Removal Funds this year, the State Highway Commission reported today.

The funds are distributed to counties that have an average of 70 or more inches of snow during the previous winter.

Michigan's average snowfall last winter — 102 inches — was the highest recorded since 1966 when the Snow Removal Fund was established by the State Legislature.

Snow Removal Fund payments are made from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund under a formula established by the Legislature based on average snow depth and number of miles of roads in each county.

The 1966-67 average snowfall was 30 inches more than the average snowfall for the last 13 years.

The higher the average snowfall on Michigan's 50,022 square miles, the more counties share in the Snow Removal Fund.

Two years ago, 53 counties received money from the Fund based on an average snowfall of 96 inches during the winter of 1964-65. Last year, 25 counties received payments based on the 1965-1966 winter when Michigan had an average of 66 inches of snow.

Only 15 counties had enough snow during the winter of 1960-61 to qualify for Snow Removal Funds. That year, Michigan had an average of 55 inches of snow.

The highest recorded snowfall last winter was at the Baraga County community of Herman which had 294 inches of snow. The lowest recorded snowfall was 36 inches at Pontiac.

Snow Removal Fund payments this year will total $752,088 compared to $712,634 last year, an increase of $39,454.

Statistics on snowfall are provided by the U.S. Weather Bureau which has one or more observation stations in every county.

As usual, little Keweenaw County in the Upper Peninsula had the highest average snowfall last year — 229 inches — while Gogebic County was second with 207 inches.

Benzie and Otsego Counties had the highest average snowfalls in the Lower Peninsula with 139 inches and 137 inches, respectively. Last year, they tied with 102 inches each recorded during the winter of 1965-66.

Crawford County had an average snowfall of 112 inches and will receive $13,381.

200 Students at Halloween Party
The annual Halloween Party for the students of Grayling High School was held on October 31 in the gymnasium from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. There were approximately 200 students in attendance. The students were dressed like hillbillies. Various contests were held.

The Sophomore Class won $5.00 for the most points scored in the contests. The door prize was won by David Rutkowski. The best dressed girl prize went to April Thayer, best dressed boy prize to Mike Hauxwell. These prizes consisted of a free subscription for the school yearbook.

The Saint Mary's Men's Club furnished 20 dozen friedcakes. There were very few left. The students also consumed eleven cases of pop.

The men teachers of the high school handled the games and contests in a very capable manner. The latter part of the evening was spent dancing to record music furnished by Dave LaGuire and Fenn Welch.

ST. FRANCIS TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY
Members and friends of St. Francis Episcopal Church are invited to an 11th Anniversary Covered Dish Dinner at the church on Tuesday, Nov. 14th at 6:30. This will be the first such event held in the new parish house, since it has been completed.

IN LAST SECOND OF PLAY

Vikings Lose Final

On a wet, snow-packed gridiron, the Grayling Vikings went down to defeat in the final second of the game with the Manclona Ironmen, 13-7.

The first quarter was a scoreless battle between the two squads as neither could get an offense going on the slick field.

Then in the second quarter the Vikings began a sustained drive with Paul King scoring from three yards out. Mike Smock ran the extra point and Grayling led at the half 7-0.

Key plays in the drive were when Dave Bailey made a first down on a fourth and four situation, and a pass from Smock to Vern Hartman to the 15 yard line. Another pass by Smock to Hartman was good to the three where King carried it in.

The third quarter was bad luck for the Vikings as they were unable to move the ball, and lost the services of both King and Bailey with knee injuries. Both players were brought to Grayling Mercy Hospital, where King was held over-night and Saturday.

Grayling had the ball on the 20 yard line when Mancy recovered a fumble. From there they marched on to a TD with Chuck Johnson scoring from one yard out. Bruce Southwell added the extra point to knot the score 7-7 at the end of the third quarter.

In the fourth period Mancy took advantage of a couple of controversial calls and moved the ball into paydirt as the clock was running out.

Big play in their drive was with the ball on the 35 yard line with third and ten to go. Wilcox went back to pass; his receivers were covered, so he ran instead for a first down on the 12. From here a series of downs took the ball to the three where Terry Buyze plunged into the end zone with a second remaining on the clock. The extra point was missed, giving them a 13-7 victory.

The Mancy game marked the end of high school gridiron careers for the following seniors: backfielders Richard Meoak, Ben Pettyjohn, Bill LaMotte, John Brozo, Paul King, Dave Bailey, ends Larry Beery and Doug Wilson, Guards Steve LaGrove, Dave Jansen, Francis Hummel, Tackles Chauncey Carr and Bill Kraus, centers Dave LaGuire and Mark Hartman, and tackle Gerald Pelton who though not graduating will be 19 and therefore ineligible.

The NMC conference ended up in a three-way tie for the lead as Gaylord defeated East Jordan 26-0, Charlevoix dumped Pellston 59-0 and Boyne City had little trouble with Harbor Springs 46-6.

Postmaster Asks Mailing Change

Postmaster James Post reports that recently one of the Highway Postoffice trucks was discontinued serving this area. This particular truck worked the mail collected from the box outside the postoffice before departure at 2:30 p.m.

Post stated that there is still a pickup at this time, but there is so much mail deposited after five o'clock that the box becomes jammed.

An appeal is made to the public to mail earlier in the day, especially business places with large mailings.

To insure next day delivery in southern Michigan and many points in adjoining states, mail should be deposited in the post office prior to 2:45 p.m. and again at 4:30 p.m. There is another dispatch at 5:00 p.m.

The outside box is for emergency late mailing, and not for general use.

SHERIFF'S DEPT. REPORT

The following is reported by Sheriff Clough for the week of October 30 to November 4.

The first snow of the season brought with it a rash of PI and PD accidents of which several were serious. Once again the Sheriff's Department cautions you that during severe weather drive according to road conditions, not the speed limit. Check the safety equipment on your vehicle frequently — lights, windshield wipers, defrosters, etc.

A minimum of Halloween vandalism and destruction was reported due mainly to increased patrols and vigilance by law enforcement agencies.

The Conservation Department at Hartwick Pines reported a truck stolen from the workcamp garage by James William Booth, a parolee, along with tools, gas, and other items on Nov. 4, 1967. This truck was recovered in Genesee County along with the driver.

Four ambulance calls were answered, investigated 2 B&E's, assisted 27 cars (out of gas, break-downs, etc.) handled 12 PI, PD and car-deer accidents, answered 2 disorderly persons complaints, issued several citations regarding traffic complaints, issued 32 driver licenses, patrolled over 2,000 miles of roads in the County, checked over 79 business and residential properties, handled 42 miscellaneous complaints and worked day and night patrols in the communities of Frederic and Lovells.

Mrs. Helen Fisher is back from Hartford, Ind. to spend the winter months at their home here.

Hospital Employee Honor Week

November 5-11th is Employee Honor Week at Mercy Hospital. It is a week filled with activities and awards. Each employee wears a special blue ribbon that entitles him to free coffee during coffee breaks for the week.

Time saving suggestions have been submitted by employees. A. Doremire and his committee will pick a winner of a cash award.

On Tuesday Mrs. Eleanor Filley and her select judges sampled many kinds of foods in the cooking contest.

Wednesday is the Annual Award Dinner for employees who have ten or more years of service to the patients of this community. Milton Elert of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, will be the after dinner speaker. Twenty-three employees have been invited. The Mercy Employee of the Year will also be announced at the dinner. This special employee, who receives a savings bond, as the award, has been selected by the employees.

Rev. Father Lawrence Dannehammer will conduct a Day of Inspiration on Thursday, November 9th.

A baby picture contest will amuse and puzzle several on Friday.

A Know Your Hospital questionnaire contest was conducted throughout the week.

Departments have had displays in the hospital lobby explaining the work of their departments. The department having the most informative display as judged by the employees, is awarded the display trophy for the year.

The purpose of the week, as stated by Sister Mary Janice, is to extend appreciation to the employees, to give special recognition to many and to say thank you to all.

Get Tough on Litterbugs

By Willard Bosserman
County Extension Natural Resource Agent

I read in a local paper recently where a man from a neighboring county was charged with illegal possession of deer. If convicted he would have been charged $200.00 for each deer plus court costs. In this case there were three deer. The Conservation Department is beginning to get tough with deer violators. Perhaps it's time to get tough with litterbugs as well.

Gentle persuasion will convince most people that littering is not a socially acceptable practice. In every case there are some who have to learn the hard way. There are always a few who have to touch the hot stove to find out that you are not supposed to touch a hot stove. Probably it is not fair to compare a poacher with a litterbug. Poaching is a wanton violation of the law. Littering is generally done by some upright citizen who is a thoughtless slob and probably leaves beer bottles all over the living room floor.

Act 106 P.A. 1963 allows for fines up to $100.00 for littering, besides this, they may be directed by the court to litter-gathering labor, including, but not limited to, the litter connected with the particular violation.

The accused deer slayer got off on the first round in court because of illegal search and seizure.

There are not enough law-enforcing people to do the job of catching litterbugs and it may take a Philadelphia lawyer to get a conviction. We have to give it that old college try. Citizens will have to cooperate by reporting incidents and signing complaints.

Why a Senior Club? There are three basic advantages to be- longing to a Senior Citizen Club. They are as follows:

Education — there is a great advantage to learning in a group and through the group method more learning situations may be offered.

Recreation — a club provides a better opportunity for a greater variety of activities, a chance to learn new ways to have fun, and most important of all, a chance to involve persons who are now isolated and alone.

Community Service — most seniors now have time to take part in community services and many feel they owe a portion of their time, energy and knowledge to a community that has been good to them.

Bar Association Recommends Touch Shorthand Courses

At a regular meeting of the 34th Judicial Bar Association held at Johnson's Rustic Resort in Prudenville on October 3, 1967, a resolution was passed petitioning Kirtland Community College officials to include a course in "Touch Shorthand," known as basic Stenotype or Stenograph in the business courses offered there when the college opens. A copy of the resolution follows, and the Avalanche endorses the recommendation:

Motion by Attorney James V. Rutledge, seconded by Judge Dennis J. O'Keefe:

WHEREAS the only system of shorthand generally taught in our public schools is Gregg Shorthand; and

WHEREAS due to the changes in Gregg Shorthand theory in recent years students are unable to attain the skill required to do court and conference reporting, and, as a consequence, there is no longer a school in the United States teaching court reporting by means of the Gregg Shorthand system;

WHEREAS THE ONLY SHORTHAND SYSTEM THAT IS SUPPLYING REPORTERS FOR OUR COURTS IS THE SYSTEM KNOWN AS "TOUCH SHORTHAND" COMMONLY REFERRED TO AS "STENOGRAPH" OR "STENOGRAPHY";

WHEREAS up to the present time the "Touch System" of Shorthand, except in a few instances, never has been taught in our public institutions, therefore most students have been deprived of the opportunity to study it;

WHEREAS the new Constitution of the State of Michigan makes it mandatory that an additional number of courts of record be established, Judges and attorneys feel an obligation to do all within their power to seek ways and means of securing shorthand reporters for these courts, and are of the firm opinion that the first step in this direction is the immediate inclusion of "Touch Shorthand" in the business courses in our Community Colleges; that a demand exists for administrative assistants who are capable of taking dictation at speeds greater than are attainable by the use of Gregg Shorthand; that from among these accomplished young men and women there will be a sufficient number who will continue their studies and become court reporters.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

ED that the members of the 34th Judicial Bar Association, composed of attorneys practicing in the counties of Arenac, Ogemaw, Roscommon, Crawford and Otsego, respectfully petition the President and the Board of the Kirtland Community College to include "Touch Shorthand" known as basic "Stenotype" or "Stenography" in the business course when Kirtland Community College will be opened, thus serving the community by furnishing highly skilled stenographic personnel, and tendering its graduates, especially the young men, the opportunity to prepare for the more remunerative position of court reporter.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be presented to Lloyd VanBuskirk, President of Kirtland Community College, and to the College Board.

Veterans Day

Throughout recorded history, and no doubt for eons of thousands of years before that, it has been a tragic fact that the best of the young men had to carry the burden of fighting the battles of wars in which their families, their tribes or nations have been involved. In the United States today, every person, every family and most of all those with children know well that civilization has not yet progressed far enough to lift the burden from its young people who now fight on a battlefield in defense of the ideals and principles for which this country stands.

During the November 11 observance of Veterans Day, the nation will pause to honor those who have given or are giving their lives for the United States in time of war. It is especially fitting that they be so honored. World War I, older citizens will remember, was thought to be the last war. November 11 was originally set aside by Presidential Proclamation as a day to commemorate the termination of hostilities in World War I on the morning of November 11, 1918. Armistice Day was established as a national holiday.

But, the armistice did not last. Since that time, millions of American servicemen have fought in this nation's battles on every continent of the world. In recognition of this fact, the meaning of Armistice Day was broadened in May of 1954 when Congress decreed that this November day be known as Veterans Day with a broader meaning recognizing all those who have served in the United States in time of need. The nation will remember them and carry the hope that time will be the day when the world will see the signing of a final armistice so young men may give their lives for their country rather than for the building of a better future.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEAR AGO

Nov. 9, 1944

Last Friday, Nov. 3, Floyd Lovely opened the Grayling Bakery for business. The bakery has been closed for some time and it will seem good to the people of the community to again be able to buy the delicious bread and baked goods that the bakery has always been noted for. The last owner of the bakery was Charles Melichar, before him the bakery was owned and operated by A. R. Craig and before that by Thomas Cassidy. The present owner, Floyd Lovely, worked in the bakery for all three of the owners. His experience in the bakery business extends over 15 years. He, no doubt, has learned many secrets of the baking trade from the men who preceded him. With this wealth of experience the baked goods of the Grayling Bakery ought to be "tops."

The Avalanche is certainly in strong hands — Bob, Evabel, Sondra, Bobby and Bob's father. More strength and power to 'em! S/Sgt. Milford Parker, son of Mrs. Melvin Enyart of Grayling, writes that while on a pass to London he was having tea in a small "shoppe" with his "cubby" when he met a native of London who upon hearing their conversation of English history and this and that gave him a coin that was dug up from a bomb crater. It had lain there since the Roman reign in England 400 years B.C., and was found while cleaning up the debris a huge bomb had caused. "Imagine having a coin about 2,344 years old," he wrote. "All my own free, a gift, what rare good luck for me. I was told by an English major that it may well be worth a small fortune."

Reports of Members:

Treasurer John Latusek reported that the books are at Melvin Nielson's office being audited. He read a list of the disbursements since our last meeting. President Burns reported on the East Michigan Tourist Association meeting held October 18 in Bay City. He said that Michigan showed a 3 percent gain in tourist business last year. However, the National average was 5 percent. Reasons for this include riots, strikes, weather, Expo, and being out-promoted. INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By Elmer E. White

Michigan Press Association

NEWSPAPER TRENDS

Special columns, cartoons and stories were carried by many Michigan newspapers commemorating 1967 National Newspaper Week, Oct. 8-14. The central theme, "Newspapers Get Things Done," accurately describes day-to-day activities of this state's 350 daily and weekly newspapers.

Successful publications thrive on getting things done for their communities and readers. This is only part of the Michigan newspaper story.

Change to offset printing is a major industry trend. As contrasted to the conventional letterpress process, offset printing uses no linotypes, molten lead or other materials usually associated with newspaper printing.

Instead, imprinted strips of paper are pasted to large sheets the sheets are photographed and a thin aluminum-plate is made from each negative.

During the printing the image is transferred from offset plate to a rubber roller and back on to the newsprint. The plate never touches newsprint.

In 1962, 15 Michigan weeklies and one daily newspaper were printed by offset. By 1965 this number had increased to 49 weeklies and three dailies. This year there are 141 weeklies and 13 dailies printed by the offset method.

Accompanying the change to offset has been a move to centralized printing. Offset presses are expensive. It makes little sense for a newspaper to invest thousands of dollars for a press it will use only an hour or two each week.

Because of this investment, publishers who purchase machinery sell "press time" to other newspapers. The system works well for both parties.

Newspapers with offset presses receive a good return on their investments and may keep the presses humming five, six and sometimes seven days a week. Newspapers which buy press time at central plants can invest capital in other areas of expansion and devote more time to improving their products.

Healthy and getting better and stronger every day, Michigan's expanding newspaper industry reflects the professional planning and foresight of publishers.

From 1966 to 1967 circulation of weekly newspapers increased 3.6% from 1,207,438 to 1,251,047 subscribers. Circulation of dailies increased 2.5 percent, from 2,368,985 to 2,429,547.

College graduates now occupy "key" staff positions on many newspapers and find their work stimulating, exciting and financially rewarding.

Processed color in newspapers appears more frequently and "hi-fi" and "Spectra-color" advertisements compete with quality magazine reproduction.

Modern technology will soon bring many more electronic advances to newspaper production. Already some newspapers have computerized areas of operation. One new typesetting machine can set a full newspaper page of type in two minutes; the same machine handles all routine systems in billing and scheduling classified ads.

Misunderstanding of newspapers' roles and responsibilities still exist. Editors and reporters take much abuse, some of it justified, most of it not. Too often public officials forget that newspaper personnel represent the public and the public's "right to know."

A Kentucky editor wrote a prize-winning column in which he listed 12 sentences guaranteed to shade the complexion of any newspaper editor.

"Please use the story as I've given it to you. We want it for our group scrapbook."

"How come it wasn't in the paper?"

"Your're invited . . . and bring your camera."

"Are you busy?"

"I know it's Sunday, but won't you . . ."

"We want you to be our publicity chairman . . ."

"My uncle is one of your big advertisers and he'll . . ."

"For $25 would you keep it out of the newspapers?"

"You should have known about it . . ."

"Our publicity chairman sent you . . ."

"You used her name and not mine."

"The wedding was only two months ago . . ."

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

The famed gold rush poet, Robert Service once started out a stanza with the phrase, "The northern lights have seen strange sights."

And as expressed in his following verse, the "strange sight" of all, according to his thought, was the cremation of Sam McGee. But apparently Bob Service did not live long enough to see the strange sight of all.

That is the recently announced plan by the U. S. Interior Department to extend loans up to 75 per cent for those who seek gold to pay for the costs of exploration.

This deal, however, is not a bonanza for the burro or dog team prospector, as in order for a prospector to get a loan he must have a valid interest in the ground he is working.

The reason for this move is that the government is running out of gold to pay off foreign claims on the dollar.

And interestingly enough, even though there is an international monetary agreement being set up to flood the world with "paper gold" honest metallic gold is still tied in to the high flown plans.

With typical bureaucratic sang froid, the government overlooks the basic cause of a night.

There are gold mines close down not only in the U. S. but in all parts of the free world where the reserves are proven but the ore does not have enough value to extract at today's costs.

Thus, for this new plan to succeed, high grade ore must be found which will "return" more per ton than it costs to mine and mill.

It is carefully explained that these loans are to be repaid by a royalty on the gold produced. But this is all predicated on the assumption that such exploration will develop high grade ore bodies.

The loans are additionally qualified by a stipulation that there should be some assurance that such exploration work will uncover high grade ore, though it has long been known that gold is where you find it.

Of course, an increase in the price of gold would start prospecting on a major scale. But this apparently is too easy. If there are any old time prospectors left in the Southwest they and their burros might themselves to sleep every night.

The Ausable Swingers had a good dance again on November 4. We had a guest caller, Al Buzanski from Houghton Lake. There were guests from Mio, Houghton Lake, and Gaylord, and everybody had a good time. On Sunday evening a few of us went over to dance with the Gaylord Club. We had an enjoyable evening and there was a very large crowd despite the fact we "slid" a good deal on the way over. Our next dance is December 2. You folks who don't dance don't know what a good time you are missing!
